The 1978 Agape Staff of Montreat-Anderson College,
Montreat, North Carolina proudly present the 5th volume of our yearbook . . . a pictorial story of our school and students.

REFLECTIONS OF ... Brotherhood among Montreat Anderson students. Everyone at one time or another has needed a friend. Whether for help in our classwork or in times of personal tragedy, a friend will make himself present to provide whatever assistance is needed. Chosen carefully, a good friend at Montreat shares his every thought, plan, and dream, but most of all his friendship ... FRIENDSHIP.

REFLECTIONS OF . . . The gifts of God and his talents . . . the sunshine, the leaves, the sea, the clouds, the streams and Montreat . . . BEAUTY.

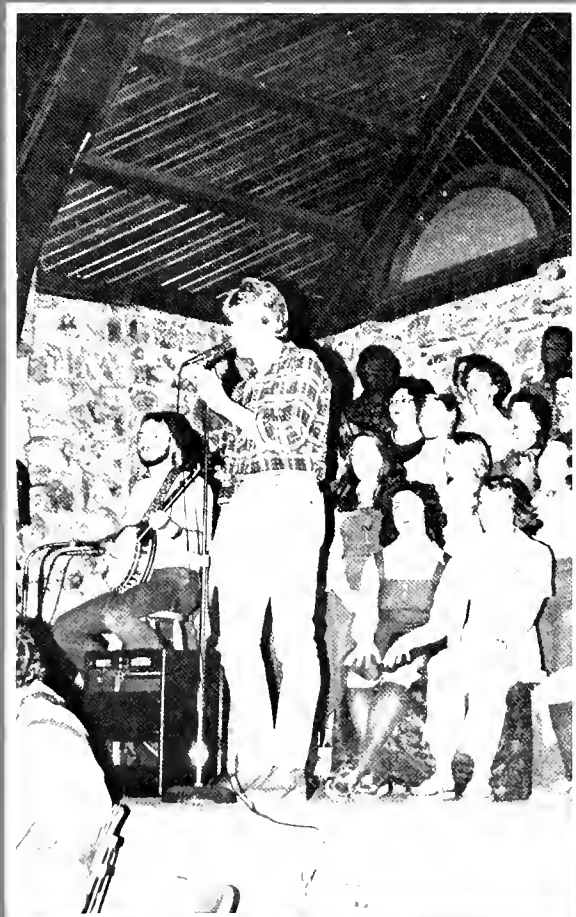

REFLECTIONS OF ... Feelings expressed by others. Life is full of happiness and hatred. Within each of us is a wide variety of emotions ranging from the smallest expression of joy to the deepest dislike or prejudice. Through the encouragement provided by achievement and the pleasures received from caring for someone all show interest in the adventures of life ...

EMOTIONS.

REFLECTIONS OF ... Special happenings passed down by our Montreat Anderson ancestors. Although times and people change, the "customs" are annually renewed each year at Montreat Anderson College. These customs, although seeming ridiculous to a select few, have their own distinctness which provides an overall enjoyment to the students ... TRADITIONS.

DEDICATION

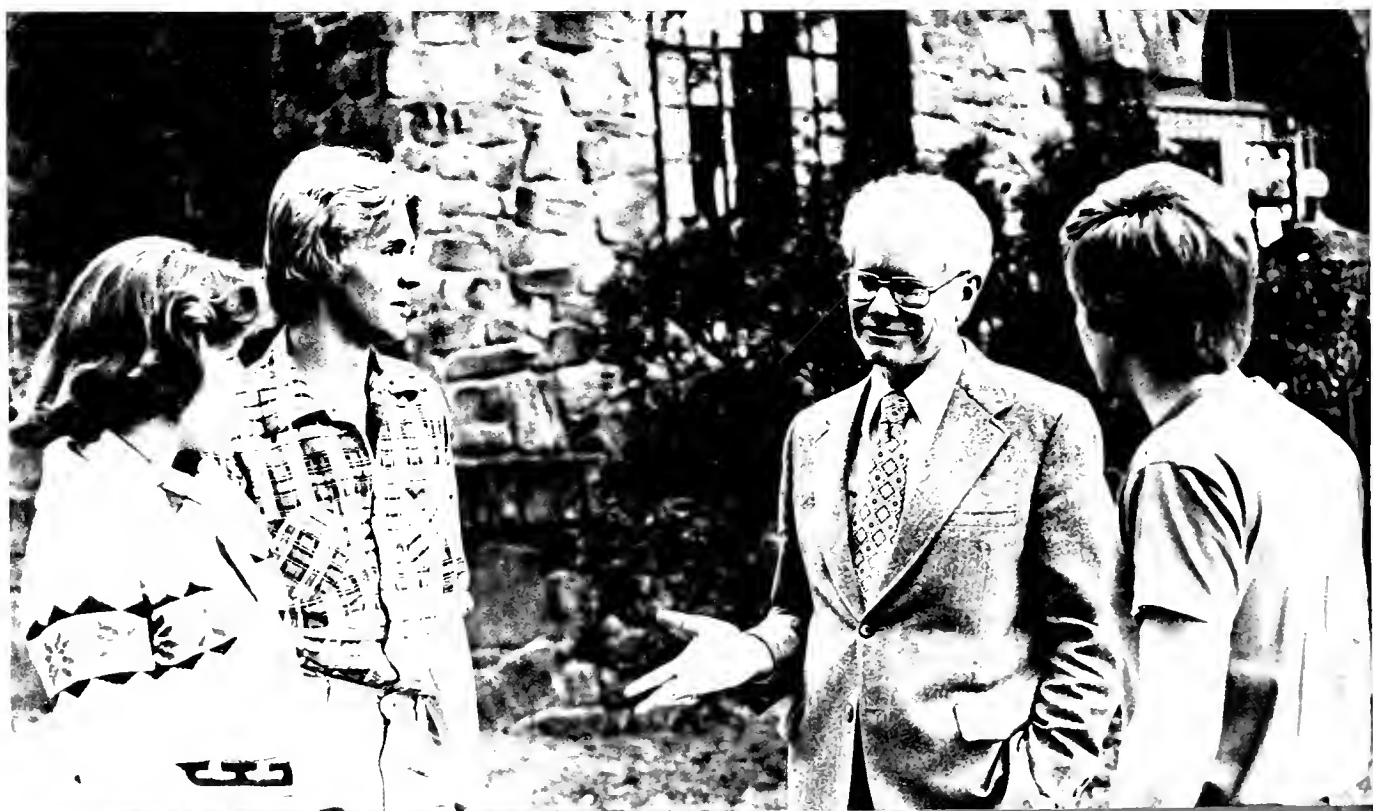

THE REV. B. HOYT EVANS
JANUARY 10, 1923-OCTOBER 28, 1977
Part-Time Bible Instructor 1966-67
Trustee of the College
Full-Time Bible Instructor 1976-77
Acting Dean of the College 1977

God created the universe and with this He had only just begun . . . A very special and loved man, here at Montreat-Anderson College, showed many people how God began in his life and how He would never end because of His eternal promise. This man radiated equal compassion and concern for all students and faculty. His understanding and willingness of wanting others to experience the greatness of God was seen everyday in his smile. He was sincere in his approach to his teaching and his ideas and opinions were strong, yet bendable according to God's will. He made people aware of their surroundings and he energized the full meaning of life. His own life showed a never ending open heart and mind to all people and an ever present love for God. We would like to thank his wife, Mrs. Martha Evans, as she continues to show her love for this college, which she shared with her husband, and our appreciation for her teaching. It is with gratitude to God, that the 1978 Agage Staff DEDICATES this Yearbook — To a man who had only just begun, The Rev. B. Hoyt Evans

COACH'S COMMENTS

We played a few games and after people started to see we could play, we had fans come to watch.

We actually jelled as a team. Everyone did their job, whether it was a starting job or support only.

A fantastic bunch of guys.

1. Freshman James Freshwater was among top 20 in scoring in WNC throughout.

2. Robert Brinkley and Willie "6-9" McCray supplied rebounding power consistently.

3. 1977-78 MONTREAT-ANDERSON CAVALIERS

4. Robert Brinkley, better known as the "Bull" for his raw power and aggressiveness under the boards, here ascends the hoop for a dunk.

5. Sharpshooter Tim Edwards played a key role in several important games this season.

6. No one ever told Willie McCray he was only 6'2", so he continues to jump as someone 6-9", there you have his nickname. 'Six-nine' shown here edging jump ball from Warren Wilson's 6-8" center.

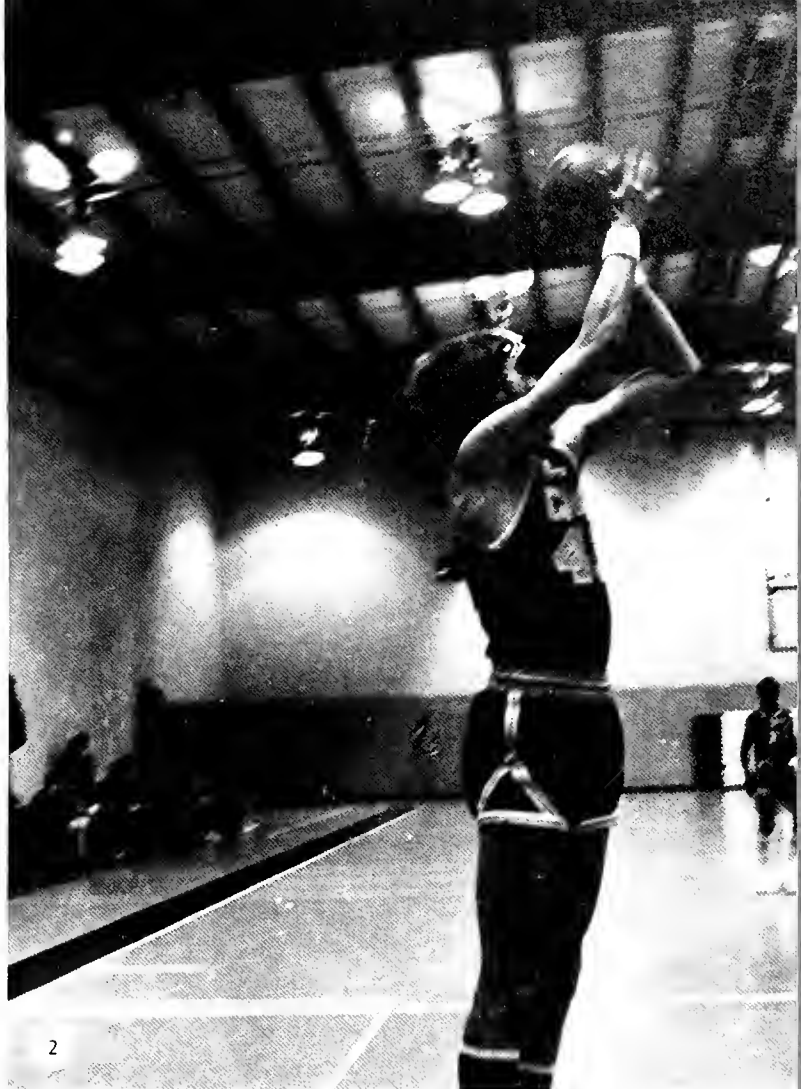

THREE STARTERS RETURN

1. Ivan Diggs was an asset, both offensively and defensively this year and will be a great leader next season.
2. "Bull" Brinkley, as he did at vital points throughout the season, dominates the boards for two.

3. "Six-Nine" brought crowds of fans and opponents alike to their feet all season with a collection of net-ripping slam dunks.
4. Left alone on a fast break, Freshwater adds two to the Cavs' victory at Warren Wilson.

CAVS REIGN IN 77-78

1. With Elbow and arm above the rim, Brinkley slaps back a shot, one of his many blocked shots for the year.
2. Gary Parris, a sophomore starter, was a very important ingredient in both the offense and defense. As with Duke, Edwards and Brinkley he will be missed much next year.
3. James Freshwater, starting freshman, won the Most Valuable Player Award 77-78.

Homecoming '77 was a big success. The Jeep Fleet made its debut. The Alumni gave the Soccer Club a run for its money. The dance was great and the Queen and her Court were Montreat's finest.
